Connecting fiddlers - young and young at heart

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We hit the SnoRoad Winery with the place full of bicyclists all over the place. It was running over with these people. We had to wait for them to get through with their awards ceremony before we could set up our equipment. Too bad some of them didn't stay for our show. Our crowd was thin but the entertainment was great. We really put on a great musical show. I invited fourteen folk from that part of the country and nine of them came and really enjoyed the show and the music.

It was good to see Bob and Judy Stevens, and Bill and Lorre Meyers. They had a long and tough winter with health problems. Hope everyone is going to feel better with the sunny warm weather. Read the Umatilla County news last month for more details.

Next was our show in Union. Mother Nature tried to ruin the weekend but we won out. We went ahead with the fun. Bill and Lorre Meyers and Joe McCutcheon stayed with us. We missed Bob and Judy Stevens and Pat Samples this year. Vicki Hagey really pulled the two day event, Friday and Saturday, in style. Read about the weekend in the Union County news. You can also find out about our 2017 Fall of Fame member in our minutes of our annual meeting.

I want to thank TJ Huitt for all of his help during the show. He helps me give out all the give-away things. We appreciate the door prize sponsors. Our Public Relations man, Jack Raymond and his wife Mary Jane, helped take off the crunch for me with the odds and ends of setting up, taking down and running things. The FFA members came through with all their good help and refreshments they had. It was a job well done. Everyone came through with their assignments and I so appreciate the help. I extend a thank you to all. It is more fun when everyone pitches in to help.

On a personal note on April 13th, I attended a talent show that I helped organize. We had 24 who brought displays. Colleen brought some quilts and table runners. I brought a couple of gut buckets to display and a big bowl of dried apples for people to taste. I displayed a board of the Hill Billy giveaways that I give out at the fiddle shows. It was quite a discussion table. We had 26 musical entertainers. Two young BMOTFA members, Jon and Joe Morton played the fiddle and mandolin. They and their parents joined the BMOTFA at the Union show. They did a really good job. None of the usual backups that play with me showed up so I talked one of the entertainers who plays the guitar into playing with me. Deborah Warburton was her name. We had never played together before but it went quite well. It was a nice evening for all 95 in attendance.

Colleen and our daughter, Jill, went to West Jordan, Utah Easter Sunday for the birth of our 17th great grandchild. They named him Taysom Teneti Christensen. The Teneti means Dennis in Mauri language The mother's mother is from New Zealand. It was quite an honor.

I was unable to attend the Irrigon show. I was asked to conduct a Celebration of Life for one of our BMOTFA members, Fred Talbott. Fred and Saonni attended all of the local fiddle shows for years. He was a good friend and neighbor. He shod our nine horses for years and judged at our Junior Rodeo for thirty years. He was a true friend to all. I sent my PA system home with Bill Meyers. Bill, Mark Ludwick and Kevin Hedgepeth helped Bob Stevens with the show and PA system. I appreciate all their help. Irrigon is always a great show. Thank you for your support.

MORROW COUNTY

It's April, and as usual, I have nothing to write about.

We did go to Echo for the SnoRoad Winery Show. We missed the annual meeting. Sorry about that, I just wasn't up to it.

Seems like almost every day we get a little rain. It makes life miserable, but does make the grass grow. I'm going to have to mow the yard but I'll put it off as long as I can.

I haven't talked to anyone for quite a while, so we hope the ill are getting better, along with the spring weather. I think a few warm sunny days will help everyone.

I did go back into the back country and watched the neighbors brand calves yesterday. I can't help anymore, but it's fun to be there and watch.

Saturday was the Irrigon show. I hope everyone had a good time. Judah Falcon sang the National Anthem. These are the musicians who played: Bobby Stevens, Sissy falcon, Selah Falcon, Jerin Falcon, Ruth Hodges, Win Weston, Vickie Hagey Jo Shay, Joan Gray, Michelle Hedgepeth, Bill Meyers, Mark Ludwick, Sonny Morris, Charlie Raeder, Tom Vickroy, May Hampton, Kat Wuennecke, Daryl Wuennecke, Shawn Hughes Julia Milleson, Joe McCutcheon, Veronica Manis. The hymn was done by Mark Ludwick.

Enough for now.

UNION COUNTY

Hello members,

I have a question for you, by the time you get this will winter be over yet?

Union County had their first show on April 8. If you didn't show up you missed it. Gosh, I really wanted to see you. April 7th we started off with a finger food table that was loaded, 37 showed up to eat. Thank you to all who brought a dish, we so enjoy eating. The following are the ones who showed up to play and what a time we had...

Kent and Carolyn Craig, Les and Evelene Haynes, Julia Milleson, Carl Stinnett, Ron Phillips, Alyn and Jody Domschot, Joe and Jon Morton, Melody Huitt, Diana Davrainville, Cindy Frick, Sherry Cadwell, Vickie Hagey, Denny Langford, Kevin and Michelle Hedgepeth, Bill Meyers, Larry Cannon, Teri and Lee Stoltz, Bill West, Joe McCutcheon, Veronica Manis.

For Saturday April 8, I had warned people to bring extra blankets, that it was going to snow. No surprise then on that. Saturday started out with 40 people showing up for our breakfast that Island City Market put on for us and they did a great set up with all their food. The annual meeting took place at 10:00am and you can read about that in Denny's share. At 1:00pm, of course we ate again at the feeding station that took place. Wow! I think I went over board at that one. Thank you all who brought potluck, I know I enjoyed it Cleaned up, pushed the tables back and then jamming took place until our gracious sponsors, Union FFA students, set up for the evening public show. This group of students had an awesome set -up for snacks and I know we all appreciated them. Thank you Union FFA. The show began at 6:15pm, hmm, why so late? Anyway we had 25 players and they are as follows: Starting with Jack Raymond leading us with the Pledge. Vickie Hagey, Justin Williams, Brianna Huitt, Joan Gray, Mark Ludwick, Les and Evelene Haynes, Bill West, Joe Morton, Jon Morton, Anna Cavinato, Melody Huitt, Denny Langford, Larry Cannon, Sherry Cadwell, Jo Shay, Diana Davrainville, Alyn and Jody Domschot, Ruth Hodge, Bill Meyers, Tom Vickroy, Cindy Frick, Julia Milleson, Joe McCutcheon, Veronica Manis, Teri and Lee Stoltz.

I can't tell you how much fun I have and I try to enjoy each of you. If I don't come tell me so I can get to know you. I appreciate all these players who have a place in their hearts for Old Time Music. Bless you all until next time.

WALLOWA COUNTY

April Showers bring May flowers? If that's the case, we should have lots and lots of flowers this month! We have had a beautiful sunny day here and there where I've been able to get some things done outside. My tomatoes are a foot tall (in the greenhouse, of course), and some have blooms! Thinking positively, the rainy and snowy days do leave lots of time to stay inside play music!

This year's Hootenanny & Shoo-Fly Pie Social, celebrating the music of Dolly Parton, will be held on May 21st, from 4 to 6:30 PM, at the Odd Fellows Hall, at 105 NE 1st Street, in Enterprise. The Hootenanny is a fun event, featuring a host of local musicians. And...there's PIE! Each year an impressive variety of home-baked pies are lined up for concert-goers to sample for a mere $1 per slice, with a chance to vote for first, second and third place! There will be some great raffle prizes too.

Admission is $10, and don't forget to bring some extra cash for pie!

We'll be gearing up this month for the next Fiddle Show in Joseph at the Hurricane Creek Grange, at 63081 Hurricane Creek Road in Joseph! The show is on Saturday, June 10th at 6:00 PM, with a homemade dinner prepared by the Grange ladies available at 5:00 PM! For more information, call me at 541-263-1637.

I'd love to see you there!

Registration is open for the Wallowa Fiddle Tunes Camp. The camp will be held at the Wallowa School, July 9-14. Registration is $200; lunches are an additional $62 for the week. You can register online, on the Wallowa Valley Music Alliance website <http://wvmusicalliance.org/wallowa-fiddle-tunes-camp-2/camp-overview-2017/>. For questions about the camp, instructors, and classes, please contact camp director, Carla Arnold: 541-663-0776 (home), or 541-786-4535 (cell).

That's it for now! Keep all those fiddles, mandolins, banjos, guitars, and everything else warmed up... oh yeah, and the autoharps too!

Wallowa County Director,
Sandi and Larry Richerson

GRANT COUNTY

Hello everyone in good ole Eastern Oregon:

I've been setting here trying to think of something to write about. Everything seems to be going about the same as it has for the last several months. Half the Nation seems to hate the President, and half seems to love Him, let's hope and pray he is good for our country.

Ron Phillips and I have been going over to Burns to their Friday night jams, with the Oregon Oldtime Fiddlers, that is quite fun. We attended one of their pot lucks.

We had good food and a lot of fun.

I don't know how many of you have heard of the cigar box guitars, but they are quite interesting. My oldest son John has started making them. People are getting quite interested in them. They have a good rhythm blues sound. We all had a great time learning to play songs with him.

Back on the home front, we still play music on Thursday nights, and would love to have any or ALL of you to drop by and help with the music.

We were glad to see so many in Union this weekend. I managed to keep my hands off of everyone's fiddles.

UMATILLA COUNTY

April was a busy month of shows. First was SnoRoad Winery. Then we went to Union for the annual meeting and show plus lots of jamming. The last show of April was at Irrigon.

Denny Langford was unable to MC the Irrigon show so Bobby Stevens had the honor. Kevin Hedgepeth brought his sound system and it all worked out fine.

There was a good representation of over twenty musicians

A group assembled to play for Denny Evans at his assisted living residence in Pendleton. Those that played were Diane Davrainville, Melody Huitt, Joan Gray and Mark Ludwick.
